

Landscape Definition in PID-C

This category is typically a photograph that captures the presence of nature and may include sea/oceans/water/underwater.

It can have man-made features (e.g. city skylines) or disturbances of landscapes, with or without people on photography.

Representational landscapes (more natural and realistic), an impressionistic landscape or abstract landscape photographs are allowed.